PASTOR'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

Pray a Divine Mercy Chaplet once a week this month. If you've never prayed it before, there are many easy-to-follow guides you can google!

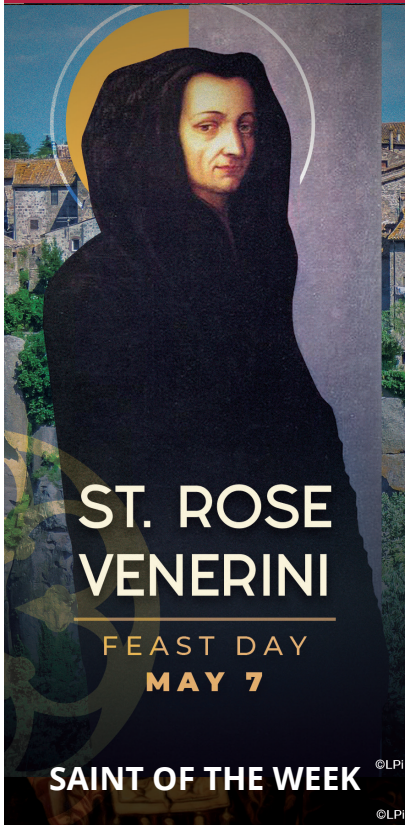

MY DEAR BROTHERS & SISTERS IN CHRIST,

This weekend sixty of our children will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation and make their First Holy Communion at a special Mass on Sunday at 2:00pm. Representing Archbishop Aquila, Fr. Randy Dollins will offer the Holy Mass and confer the Sacraments on our next generation of Catholic disciples. Pray for them that God gives to them a powerful desire to use throughout their lives the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. The Gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of God are to be poured into our children as an ocean of grace within them, just waiting to be called upon whenever needed. God bless our young people and make of them great saints!

This weekend is Commitment Sunday for the Archbishop's Catholic Appeal. Every year our beloved Archbishop Aquila invites us to make a generous gift to the works of the Archdiocese of Denver. The works of the Catholic Church in Colorado are mighty and numerous: evangelization of those far from the heart of Christ, friendship to the homeless, encouragement to those in need, education of our children and the formation of our future priests are just some of the Christian ministries made possible by your gift. You can participate by using one of the envelopes in the pews or going online to: give.archden.org.

Fr. John Hilton

The story of St. Rose of Venerini is one of having faith in God and his calling in your life. Born in Italy in 1656, she was the daughter of a doctor. Following the death of her fiancé, she entered a convent in the hopes of becoming a nun, but soon returned home to care for her mother after the death of her father. In an effort to keep up her spiritual side, St. Rose invited women of the neighborhood to recite the rosary in her home. Unsure of where her life was headed, she sought the spiritual guidance of a priest. After much contemplation, she admitted to feeling called to be a teacher in the world, rather than a nun in a convent. Eventually, she opened a free school for girls in 1685. St. Rose died in Rome in 1728 amid a number of miracles that many credit to her. The group of women she first prayed with in her home eventually became known as the Venerini Sisters, found in the United States and working among Italian immigrants.

Last weekend, Fr. Hilton announced the start of a 4-part homily series over the next 4 weeks on the book From Christendom to Apostolic Mission. This week he continues by exploring the characteristics of the age of Christendom and those of the current age we're in: the apostolic age. If you missed part 1 last week, it can be found on our website. If your family didn't receive a book at Mass and you're interested in reading along, call Todd at the front desk or you can find a copy on Amazon!

OUR SVDP SOCIETY

Fruits of Your Bounty

Thanks to the generous donations you made to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, we are able to help families in need in our area. We just want to tell you about one person we recently helped. Doreen was abused by her husband for years and was afraid to report the abuse. She had covid three different times and during the third hospital stay, his abuse was discovered. She is now separated from him but without his income she could no longer afford her apartment. She has found a low-income rental and thanks to you and your contributions, the Society was able to help Doreen move into her new home. Thank you.
